N: Programs/Services for Learning Disabled Students

Please modify this section to represent the data for Fall 2016:

Information shown for Fall: 2016

According to the National Joint Committee on Learning Disabilities, learning disabilities is a "general term that refers to a heterogenous group of disorders manifested by significant difficulties in the acquisition and use of listening, speaking, reading, writing, reasoning, or mathematical abilities." A learning disability is presumably due to central nervous system dysfunction, and is not primarily due to other handicapping conditions, environmental, or cultural influences. It is not a form of mental retardation, or an emotional disorder.

According to the school, There's something special about Pittsburg State University. This is the answer you're likely to get when you ask any of the university's 65,000 alumni about their experience at Pittsburg State. It's the result of a unique combination of nationally recognized academics, caring faculty, affordable tuition and an incredibly supportive community. Founded in 1903, Pittsburg State University has positioned itself as one of the leading academic institutions in the Midwest. Its four colleges boast some of the most advanced academic programs in the region. Students can choose from more than 200 academic programs among Pittsburg State's four colleges of Arts and Sciences, Education, Technology and AACSB accredited Kelce College of Business. Placement rates for many programs, especially those within the university's acclaimed College of Technology, boast placement rates well above 90 percent. Pittsburg State is also well-known for preparing students for success in medical school and other graduate and professional-school programs. If you don't know what you'd like to major in, our innovative Exploratory Studies Program will introduce you to a range of options to help you find a rewarding course of study. Students at Pittsburg State enjoy small class sizes (19-to-1 student/faculty ratio) and challenging courses with caring faculty in modern classrooms. Our unofficial motto is By Doing Learn. This unique approach allows our faculty to combine advanced academic theory with practical experience to deliver a first-rate academic experience. Pittsburg State's 630 acre campus provides the university's 7,200 students with a traditional college experience in the comfort and safety of a small town. Its popular tuition plans allow many out-of-state students to attend at in-state or reduced cost and every full-time student can take additional courses at no additional charge. We offer a generous program of need-based and merit financial aid, to help ensure access to a high-quality education. Indeed, four out of five Pitt State students receive some form of financial aid. Pittsburg State is the only university in the nation to feature a Gorilla as a mascot and its 13 athletic programs compete at the NCAA Division II level and regularly compete for conference and national championships. Students at Pittsburg State feel at home from the moment they step on campus. This has as much to do with the city of Pittsburg as it does with the university's incredible campus. Conveniently located in southeast Kansas, the 20,000 residents of Pittsburg love their university and it shows. Red and gold banners, concrete Gorillas and university logos can be found throughout the city. Pittsburg State students quickly realize that they have become part of something special. They have become Gorillas and as we say, Once a Gorilla, Always a Gorilla.

Social Life

Most popular places where students gather, both on and off campus:

Popular gathering spots on campus include the student center and rec center. Off-campus students gather at local parks, recreational areas, and retailers in town.

Groups that have a strong presence in your school's social life (Greeks, athletes, Christian groups), though they need not be formal organizations:

Student Activities Council, Student Government Association, and Greek Organizations have a strong presence in student social life.

Most popular social/entertainment/cultural/sports events of the school year:

Homecoming, Apple Day, Family Day, and Greek Week are popular events.

General comments on the social and cultural life on campus:

According to a school representative, 'Midwest values and hospitality are found on this campus of 7,200 students. Located just two hours from Kansas City, Tulsa OK, Springfield MO, and Fayetteville AR, students are close for big city visits, but still enjoy campus and city sponsored entertainment, art exhibits, and sporting events. Gender distribution is about even on the 600 acre campus. The over 20,000 citizens of Pittsburg, KS take pride in supporting PSU, home of the Gorillas, and its mission of encouraging individuals to achieve their potential.'
